[From the Philadelphia Telegraph.]

A SHARP LETTER FROM EX CONFEDERATE GENERAL MAGRUDER—GRAVE INSINUATIONS AGAINST CAMERON'S VERACITY—HOW MAGRUDER CROSSED THE LONG BRIDGE INTO VIRGINIA, AND HOW HE DID NOT CROSS IT.

Below we publish a letter written by the ex-Confederate General Magruder to a gentleman in this city concerning the circumstances which attended his resignation from the regular army at the outbreak of the war, and the manner in which he left the capital and crossed the Potomac on his way South.

GALVESTON, May 8, 1870.

Dear Sir:—I have not had an opportunity to answer your letter of April 16th until now. As I have always abstained from politics entirely since the war, I regret that I am compelled to write a letter which will be construed by some, at least, as being of a political character. It is not so, however, for this letter is purely personal, and written solely in defence of my honor, which has been recklessly, maliciously, and mendaciously, attacked by Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, in a debate in the Senate of the 5th ultimo, as appears from the Congressional Globe, which you, though unacquainted with me personally, I believe had the kindness to send me, for which I thank you sincerely. Before going farther, I will here say that you are not only at liberty to publish this letter, but that I hope you will do so, and in such newspapers that Mr. Cameron will be forced to read it, as I hold myself responsible personally at any time to Mr. Cameron for its contents.

The paragraphs in the debate in which allusion is made to me are as follows:

Mr. Cameron.—"I remember that Captain Somebody who became a General in the rebel army had the command of a battery here, and he was going to start off, not only with himself but with his battery, but somehow or other the battery did not get off. He cleared off in a few evenings after, however, and got across the bridge."

Mr. Pomeroy.—"That was the captain who escorted the President to the White House?"

Mr. Cameron.—"The same man. He escorted the President to the White House, and I heard him say to the President that he admired him, and was going to stand by him during the war. He said that the evening before he went away."

I will premise in reference to the above that as I was the only officer that commanded a battery in Washington at that time, and afterwards became a General in the Confederate army, Mr. Cameron could have meant none other but myself. The rest of his remarks are false in every particular. In fact, they constitute one monstrous, malicious, reckless, and infamous lie; for, in the first place, I never was with Mr. Lincoln in the presence of Mr. Cameron in my life. Secondly, I never escorted Mr. Lincoln to the White House, for I was on my way from or in Europe at that time as the military representative of the country, sent by Mr. Buchanan to inspect and report upon the armies of Europe, and did not reach Washington until after the inauguration—I think about the 10th of March, 1861. In fact, I never was in Mr. Cameron's company but once in my life to my knowledge, and that was at a dinner party in the house of my brother, Commodore George A. Magruder, of the United States Navy, in Washington, whilst Mr. Cameron was Secretary of War, about the 16th, 17th, or 18th of March, 1861, when Mr. Cameron offered, in a conversation with me, as I was sitting by his side at the dinner table, to send me to Russia, there to remain until the termination of the impending war, if I would agree to it. I looked upon that as the most disgraceful position an officer could occupy. To stand upon the soil of a foreign country, to receive his pay, fold his arms, and look from a distance upon a deadly conflict of his country men, without taking sides with one or the other, was, I felt, the most ignoble course of all, and I treated Mr. Cameron's offer with the silent contempt which I thought it deserved.

In your note you ask me to state the circumstances under which I did leave Washington for Richmond, Va., at the commencement of the war. I do so with pleasure. The day on which President Lincoln received the telegram from the Governor of Virginia, my native State, declining to send his quota of troops under the first proclamation, or the day after that, Mr. Lincoln sent for me and informed me of that fact. My State had not yet seceded. I informed him that I regretted deeply the course events had taken; that if my State seceded, I was a soldier, obliged to fight either for or against her, and that I would fight for those among whom I was born and bred, my relations and friends, all of whom believed they were right. I stated to him that I was a graduate of West Point, but that West Point was not a charity school; that it was supported as much by the southern people, in proportion to cadets from the South, as by the North in the same proportion; that the Government had always recognized the right of officers to resign unless they were officially charged with crime, and that the obligations to which an officer subscribed were simply to obey the lawful orders of his superiors so long as he held the commission of the Government, and that every officer had this right to resign when he thought proper. Mr. Lincoln acquiesced in the propriety of these views; "but," I added, "Mr. President, I will be perfectly true and faithful to the obligations of my commission as long as I hold it, and you and your family will sleep in safety whenever I am on guard." "Yes," said he, "I know it, for you are an officer of the army and a southern gentleman and incapable of any but honorable conduct." I thanked him warmly and said, "Mr. President, if I do resign, you shall be the first to hear of it after my resignation is placed in the hands of the adjutant, if I can reach you, and I will remain at least twelve hours in Washington after my resignation." "Why," said he, with some surprise, "should you do that?" "Mr. President," I replied, "I wish to be gracefully off with the old love before I am on with the new." "I am sorry to lose you," he said with great animation, "but if you must go I'll help you to be gracefully off with the old love," meaning, I supposed, that he would accept my resignation when the time came to offer it. A day or two after this my State seceded. I handed my resignation to Colonel C. F. Smith, commanding, about 8 or 9 o'clock A. M., and repaired at once to the White House. Failing to get admission, I asked a brother officer, who said he would certainly see the President that morning to inform him that I had resigned, which I presume he did, took leave openly of my friends, and found myself at the Long Bridge, in a hack, just three minutes after 9 P. M.—too late, the orders being not to lower the drawbridge after 9. It was a bright moonlight night, and as I got out of the coach I found my own battery guarding the bridge. The men uncovered as I passed through them to see the lieutenant in charge. I asked him if he would be kind enough to lower the drawbridge for me, as I was all passed and ready, and was only three minutes behind the time. He touched his hat and answered courteously: "Colonel, I will lower the drawbridge, but I would do it with far greater pleasure if you were coming from Virginia instead of going to Virginia."

I departed, taking off my hat to my old comrades, some of whom I had commanded for thirty years, and with a sad heart bade them farewell. I stopped a day and a night at Alexandria, and there received the acceptance of my resignation, which I always thought was by order of Mr. Lincoln himself.

This is a circumstantial and correct account of the manner in which I passed from the old service to the new, and any other is false.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, J. BANKHEAD MAGRUDER.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450 000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skilful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks.

WHO MURDERED STEPHENS?

The head centre of the Leagues, and the shameless organ of the Leagues and the Governor, edited by his shameless, drunken son, charge the murder of Stephens to the editor of the SENTINEL.

We have been aware, for some time, of the cowardly policy of the Governor to put his blood hounds upon our track. His own course and the course of members of his administration go to demonstrate this.

His former drunken Attorney General, (Coleman,) came twice to our office, for "a fair fight," as he he said, when he knew we were forty miles away.

One of the Governor's detectives sat on our door steps, after night, as an eavesdropper, to report, no doubt, whatever he might hear, to the Governor.

Pike and the Governor's son came twice to our office, in our absence, and made threatening demonstrations.

A large number of the Raleigh League, headed by the Governor's son, came upon us on another occasion, and were only checked by the fear of a presented pistol.

The Governor himself, in a public speech, approved and commended the mob for their attack upon us at the depot. His speech so incited the mob, that the peace was preserved only by the Chief of Police cocking his pistol and threatening to shoot whomsoever should be guilty of a breach of the peace. The Mayor called three times on the Governor to cease his harangue, but nothing would silence him but the cocking of the pistol.

At the late Radical convention in this city, a crowd of leaguers, of which the Governor is said to be the president, and is certainly the moving spirit, paraded the streets with torch-lights, among them a transparency gotten up at the Standard office, representing "Jo. Turner, King of the Ku Klux." Some one threw stones at this transparency as it passed the streets, which we verily believe was done by some of the party for the purpose of exciting the mob against us on that occasion.

A worthless character in this city, who lives on terms of intimacy, and holds daily intercourse with the Governor, has given us just three months to live.

Another of the Governor's devoted friends, who was connected with the mobbing of Spelman's office, has proclaimed that we are to quit advertising the Governor for going to the grog-shops, under some unexpressed penalty.

The Governor's son threatened, last winter, to shoot us on sight, and has recently repeated the threat.

Kilpatrick's man, Estes, the defaulter, promised the Governor's pardon to any man who would "shoot Jo. Turner in the back."

The Reverend drunken parson Sinclair boasted, in a quarrel, that he could kill his enemy and the Governor would pardon him, but if he should be killed, the Governor would not pardon his slayer.

We know that the Governor's leaguers have, more than once, attempted to take our life.

Last night, a letter was dropped in this city, for a distinguished Democrat, charging that the blood of Stephens was at his door crying for vengeance, and that his time would come next.

Even while we are writing this article, a letter is received, stating that the burnings in Harnett are still going on. Mr. Willis Johnston's large wood-shop has been burned; C. H. Coffield's large barn and contents, burned on Saturday night; lately Mr. Mathews' crib and corn were burned; recently Mr. Barney Johnston's house and fences were burned, and on the same night Mr. Ballentine's barn and stables were destroyed.

For our exposition of these things, and our exposure of the swindlers and rogues in and out of office, we are aware of the personal risk we run. We are well aware that the days of Robespeire and Danton are upon us, brought about by agency of secret societies, who substitute their own will and inclinations for the Constitution and the law.

We know the risk we run in denouncing these secret organizations, but we are willing to peril everything to dissolve these Jacobin clubs, whether known as Leagues or Ku Klux Klans.

With such men as Holden, Colgrove, Stephens, Littlefield, Ludlin and Eates, to control, in secret, oath bound associations, eighty thousand ignorant, untutored men, nothing could be expected but the bloodshed, burnings and other crimes, which now disgrace the State and horrify humanity.

"APEX."

This station on the Chatham Railroad, fifteen miles from Raleigh, is very appropriately named, being sixty feet higher than Carey on the one side, and one hundred and sixty higher than Haywood on the other.

It is situated in a picturesque and healthy section, and the air and water are of the purest character. The latter needs no ice, although the wells are only twenty to twenty five feet deep, while those of Haywood are said to be from forty to sixty feet, and at Carey from thirty five to forty-five.

Apex is a new place, sprung up since the completion of the Railroad to that point, but already there are two stores there, which are getting a thriving country trade, and several saw mills are in operation in the vicinity.

We visited this thriving, new village on Saturday last, by invitation, and addressed a respectable and attentive audience on the current questions of the day. We did not see or hear of a drunken man on the ground, nor know of a drop of spirits being used during the day. This speaks well for the village and surrounding country, because it is a rare thing for such meetings to be held and no spirits drank at them.

Judging from observation, we think the land in the vicinity of Apex is better adapted to the cultivation of tobacco than of cotton. Durham, only twelve miles distant, with its three or four tobacco factories, has become quite a brisk tobacco market. Mr. R. F. Morriss of Durham, informed us that he had fourteen acres in cotton and three in tobacco, last year, and that he made forty dollars more on his tobacco than he did on his cotton, although the cotton was very good for that section.—We mention this incident for the benefit of those about Durham and Apex who are engaged in raising cotton.

This was our first trip on the Chatham Railroad. We found the engines, cars, track, and everything connected with the Road in the very best order; just such order as Dr. Hawkins, the President, and Capt. Andrews, Superintendent, are always sure to have.

In regard to politics, we believe that outside of Raleigh, the people of Wake are as fully alive to the disgraced and degraded condition of the State as are the people of any other county to be named. We heard numbers declare that, if the Conservatives of Raleigh would only come out in August and vote their full strength, we could carry the county beyond a doubt.

On Friday last, three gentlemen from different portions of the county called on us to address the people in their respective localities. We were compelled to decline, and suggested to them to call on members of the Bar in Raleigh. They replied that the members of the Bar could not be called out, and that it was doubtful as to which side many of them belonged. We hope they will soon take position and not stand vibrating in doubt and hesitation as long as did Messrs. Phillips, Badger and Hargrove.

DISSOLVING.

A friend from Johnston informs us that two attempts have been made by the Radicals of that county, to get up a County Convention to nominate candidates, both of which proved utter failures. Maj. Smith attended the first, but it was "no go," the negroes would not rally to the blowing of his horn. He stayed away from the second, but it was as bad a failure as the first.—We don't see why they didn't "go through the motions," like the Reds of Orange did, and make a skeleton of "a large and enthusiastic meeting," to be filled out into proper proportions in the Standard, for the encouragement of the faithful at other points.

The Radical meeting in Orange, which showed as large in the columns of the Standard as if it had been composed of seventeen hundred enthusiastic Holdenites, had in it only seventeen—eight white men and nine negroes!

The truth is, that the negro is beginning to learn that his time is money, and that he cannot afford to spend so much of it in attending political meetings to help put lazy, dishonest white men in office, that they may have bread while he starves.

A BOLD BURGLARY.—One of the most daring robberies that we have ever heard of was perpetrated in this city on Monday night. The residence of Major J. C. Mann, on Fourth, between Orange and Ann streets, was broken into, and a number of valuable articles, in all amounting to about $500, taken therefrom. A front room, used as a library, was entered, it is presumed, and from this the burglars passed to that in the rear, occupied as a sleeping apartment. From this they abstracted the Major's clothing, which was within a few feet of the bed where he was sleeping, and taking his watch and chain from the bureau, made off with them. They made their exit through the front door, which was found open yesterday morning, while near by had been left a portion of the missing garmenas, which had, however, been completely rifled.

The loss in money is small, but a very valuable gold watch and chain and important papers were taken off. A lot of diamond jewelry had been left on the bureau, near the watch, but this was fortunately overlooked by the thieves. The keys of the office at the Court House were also taken off, which necessitated the putting on of new locks yesterday.

Major Mann reports having heard a noise about 2 o'clock, when he got up and made an examination of the house, but discovered nothing. It must, therefore, have been nearly daylight when the burglary was committed. We regret to add that, thus far, there is neither trace nor suspicion of the depredators.—Wil. Journal.

LETTER FROM YANCEYVILLE—INCIDENTS CONNECTED WITH THE DEATH OF JNO. W. STEPHENS.

YANCEYVILLE, May 24th, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner:

DEAR SIR:—Our community was shocked, on Sunday morning last, by the ascertainment of the fact, that, on the preceding evening, John W. Stephens, late Senator from this county, was lying in one of the rooms of the Court House dead. The Conservatives of the county had a meeting on Saturday last in the Court House, to nominate candidates &c., and Stephens was in the Court House during the meeting, taking notes of the proceedings. The meeting was one of extraordinary harmony, and was throughout conducted with remarkable freedom from excitement of any sort. Late in the evening, say about four or five o'clock, the meeting adjourned.—Just before the adjournment, Stephens left the Court room, in company with one of our most respected citizens, to whom he had intimated that he wished to converse with him in regard to the politics of the county. That respectable citizen, conversed with him for a few moments at the foot of the stairs, and separating from Stephens, he saw him standing a short time afterwards near the door of the grand jury room in conversation with a colored man, whom he did not know.

After night, Stephens, failing to return home, his wife became uneasy, and sent up street to inquire concerning him. Between nine and ten o'clock at night, her uneasiness having increased, she caused general enquiry and search to be made for him, especially in the rooms of the Court House. But in the meantime, from an early hour at night, a guard or watch of colored persons had, by whose agency I know not, been placed about the Court House. The keys of the Court House were all readily produced except one—that of the room formerly used as an office by the late Clerk and Master in Equity of the county, which is an unoccupied room, this key could not be found, nor has it yet been found. Search was made of all the other rooms, and of this too, so far as it could be done by looking in through the windows; and nothing of Stephens was discovered. So the night passed leaving all in suspense in regard to him. In the meantime, the watch of which I have spoken was kept up. Next morning at an early hour, I do know the exact time, perhaps about 5 o'clock, a colored man, went to one of the windows of the room referred to, and looking in, announced that he saw the dead body of Stephens in there. The door was forced open by instruments and behold! there was his body with a rope tightly drawn around his neck and two stabs upon his person, one in or near the throat, the other immediately over the region of the heart. There was but little appearance of blood on the floor. A pocket knife was found lying near the body, but whether it was his own or not, is, I think, not certainly known. His pocket book was found on his person, but on being opened it was found, as I learn, to contain no money. He was in the habit of wearing pistols—none were found on him.

A jury of inquest was promptly summoned consisting of seven white and five colored men. They have been diligently making inquisition ever since an early hour on Sunday morning last, but not the slightest trace of a perpetrator of the deed has yet been discovered by any evidence yet laid before the jury.

There were some strangers seen about the village, although as there was a public meeting on that day, this was to be expected.—On such occasions generally, there are persons from adjoining counties; on this occasion there were fewer than usual. It was immediately suggested, on discovering the dead body, that he had probably been the victim of a well known secret association. Up to this time, there is not the slightest proof of this—the jury of inquest have not been discharged, and it is hoped that they may yet be able to discover something which will lead to the detection of the perpetrator of the deed.

Stephens had become odious with many of his own party, and some prominent colored men had been endeavoring to enter into an arrangement with the Conservatives to have him defeated. He had also rendered himself intensely odious to all good men among the white population, by his supposed connection with the recent barn burnings in the county—but I am confident from what has transpired since his death, that his murder is quite as likely to have been the act of his own political partizans, as of any other men. I forbear to be more specific in my statements, as the coroner's investigation is still pending. One thing I will add; I have no belief that he was killed by the Ku Klux, nor has any other person with whom I have conversed. I omitted to mention, in the proper place that the door of the room in which his body was found, was found to be bolted on the inside as well as locked. The perpetrators must have gone out at one of the windows, and these windows face a house occupied by colored people and situated very near to the Court House. No white man could have gone in or out of one of these windows without being exposed to the almost certain detection of the occupants of the said house. It is rumored, and the rumor is believed, that he was warned on Saturday morning by two colored persons, to beware, that his life was in danger.

It seems impossible that he could have been taken into the room, in which his body was found, by violence, without giving rise to an outcry on his part that would certainly have been heard in or near the Court House. He must have been decoyed into that room, if he was murdered there, and is it probable that any of his embittered enemies could have so decoyed him?—Would he not have suspected them, and have refused to go with them into such a place of privacy?

I give you these facts and suggestions to be used as you may think best.

A CITIZEN OF CASWELL.

FAIR PRAISE.—Is there any honest or intelligent man in North Carolina that believes the assertions in the following extract from a speech made by John Pool,—in the Senate of the United States, 15th of last month?

"Being a practicing lawyer in the courts of that State, I say that I feel sure in the opinion I express that there are fewer violations of the criminal laws of the State now than there ever have been during the course of my professional life and experience. I will go still further, and say that the courts of justice and the officers of the law punish offenders as promptly, pursue them as promptly, ferret out offenses as promptly in that State now as they ever did, and that our courts are as careful, and as prompt, and as rigid in the execution of the criminal laws as they ever were upon all classes of offenses that are not in some aspect political.

'I do not believe that my State is in that regard behind the State of New York or Ohio, or even Massachusetts, and I do not know any reason why I should believe that any of the other reconstructed States are in a less favorable condition than my own State."

The Conservatives of Stanly county have nominated A. F. Atkins for the Senate and V. Maurry for the House.

MEETING IN YANCEYVILLE.

At a meeting of the people of Yanceyville and vicinity, held this day, May 23d, 1870, in consequence of the death of Jno. W. Stephens, late Senator from the 24th District,

On motion of Dr. N. M. Roan, Col. J. C. Wilkerson was called to the Chair and Zach. T. Dickey, appointed Secretary.

Hon. Jno. Kerr explained the object of the meeting, and in a forcible and impressive manner expressed his utter condemnation of the startling and atrocious deed, and all kindred acts of violence and lawlessness by whomsoever, whenever and for whatever end perpetrated.

After cogent and condemnatory speeches by Hon. Bedford Brown, Hon. S. P. Hill and Col. E. B. Withers, who foreshadowed and delineated the direful and calamitous consequence, which, according to the unmistakable teachings of history, would inevitably attend a course of such reckless and total disregard of human law and society,

The following premable and resolutions, offered by Hon. Jno. Kerr, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, A most revolting homicide has occurred in our midst, on last Saturday afternoon, May 21st, 1870 and though a jury of inquest has been in session since an early hour on yesterday, hitherto no trace of the perpetrator or perpetrators of the dred has been discovered, though diligent inquiry has been made and many witnesses examined; Therefore,

Resolved, That we concur, unanimously, in the condemnation of the said deed by whomsoever perpetrated, and we hereby pledge ourselves to use all efforts in our power to ferret out and bring to punishment the perpetrator or perpetrators of the deed.

Resolved, That we regard this most deplorable deed as one the fruits of the unhappy state of excitement now existing in our State, brought about by the agency of those who forget that no end, however desirable, can justify the use of means, themselves, unlawful.

Resolved, That in view of the present state of society amongst us, we respectfully counsel all persons to practice moderation, to restrain evil passions and to co-operate in preserving peace and restoring harmony.

Resolved, That if this deed, dreadful as it is, stood alone, we should feel less apprehension for the future; but it is unhappily a sequence of other acts of lawless destruction, which have recently occurred in our county. Among them we mention the burning by incendiaries of the property of our best and most respected citizens; we also mention the infliction of personal chastisement on some persons without the authority of law.

Resolved, That we regard it as the first duty of every citizen, in these disordered times, to use all his influence to arrest the action of such oath bound associations, whether loyal or disloyal, and to restore the supremacy of law and thereby secure peace, safety and property.

Resolved, That we offer to the widow and family of the deceased, the assurance of our sympathy in their bereavement.

On motion of Hon. S. P. Hill, it is resolved that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the SENTINEL, Hillsboro' Recorder, and Standard for publication.

FAYETTEVILLE AND WESTERN RAILROAD.—We learn authoritatively that all work has been stopped on the Western Railroad and the Engineers have left. The Board of Directors, at the meeting in April, ordered a change of route, making the western terminus at Greensboro, instead of Salisbury. The bridge across Deep River, which is the first work to be let out, has been duly advertised, but no offers have been made. No confidence is felt in the ability of the Company to pay anything.

Under the management of Jones nothing can be done to promote the interest of that important work. It suits the purpose of Governor Holden to keep this dishonest and incompetent man in office, and the road must necessarily go to the dogs. Defeat Phillips, elect a Conservative Legislature, and we will end the career of the pirates who are destroying the vitality of our public works and ruining the credit of North Carolina.—Wil. Journal.

HON. F. E. SHOBER.—A prominent gentleman, who lives in the Eastern part of the State, writes a letter from Washington to a friend in this city from which we are permitted to make an extract.

In referring to our representative, Hon. F. E. Shober, he says:

"He is a first rate man, and can be of great service here to our people. So far he has been quiet, but has acquired a great influence here. The Democrats all belive in him, while the opposition must respect him. He is as true as steel, but not bitter. He is destined to be a most useful man here."—Salisbury Examiner.

A PROCLAMATION,

By His Excellency the Governor of North Carolina.

Executive Department of N. C.,
RALEIGH May 25th, 1870.

WHEREAS, Information has been received at this Department that on Saturday the 21st day of May, 1870 JOHN W. STEPHENS, State Senator from the county of Caswell, was murdered in the most cruel and atrocious manner in the Court House in the town of Yanceyville, in said county; and

WHEREAS, The perpetrators of said murder are now at large;

Now, therefore, I, W. W. HOLDEN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me by law, do issue this my proclamation, offering a reward of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest and conviction of each and every person implicated in the aforesaid murder; those who planned, advised or counselled the commission of the act; those who participated in the murder, or those who conspired to conceal the body and aided in the concealment and escape of the felons; and I enjoin upon all officers of the law, and citizens generally, to use all efforts to bring the offenders to justice.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this 25th (L. S.) May, 1870, and in the 94th year of our Independence.

A VALUABLE SUBSCRIBER.—A subscriber to the SENTINEL from Caswell county, sends the money to renew his subscription, and directs us to be sure to stop the paper when the money is out; he further requests us to say to his neighbors that he would be very glad they would take the paper for themselves, and not rely on him to buy and pay for information which they ought to pay for themselves.

He is right; no man ought to make it a constant practice to get his newspaper reading by borrowing from his neighbor. We shall stop his paper when the time is out, as requested, and we shall stop a good many others, too, if they don't "come to time" pretty soon.

Locals are scarce to-day. We are having a second "long season in May," and the day is very unpropitious for locals to be out, and not very favorable for us to be out after them if they were. Everything out doors is drippy and draggled, and everything indoors drooping and damp.

There are no panniers nor grecian bends visible on the dismal side walks, and the few skirts that brave the weather become considerably elevated on viewing the prospect.

But field crops and "garden sass" are in their glory, and happy is the man who had got his cotton chopped out before the season set in. What a glorious night for sleep to night will be!

The Conservatives of Greene County, have nominated G. F. M. Dail, Esq., as the candidate for the House of Representatives.

OFFICE OF THE N. C. LAND CO.,
RALEIGH, N. C., May 9th, 1870.

Mr. Editor:

SIR:—We are in receipt of several letters from capitalists of Europe, asking us to forward them descriptions of some eight to ten large tracts of land, in different parts of the State, containing from 15,000 to 100,000 acres each, to settle colonies on.

Owners of such tracts, who wish to sell, will please forward to our office, description of their land, location, price, terms &c. This company makes no charge for land placed in their hands unless a sale is made.

A prominent Shipping House of Liverpool writes us to day, asking if we will engage to furnish them with return freight, if they put on a line of Steamers to carry emigrants direct from Liverpool to Wilmington in our State. All they ask is for us to insure them this, and they will put on a steamer at once.

Here is an opportunity off red for us to ship the products of this good old State direct to Europe, without paying tribute to any of our sister States; who will assist us in bringing this about?

N. C. Land Company.

SOIREE MUSICALE.—Last evening it was our good fortune to attend one of the most pleasant and interesting Soirees ever given in this city.

When we say that this entertainment was at St. Mary's, eulogistic comment, becomes unnecessary and superfluous.

Notwithstanding the unpropitious weather, the Soiree was numerously attended by the elite of the city, and all were charmed beyond expression by the rare musical perfection, both instrument and vocal, evinced by the beautiful and accomplished young ladies of this Institution upon this occasion.

That portion of the entertainment to which we would specially allude, was the "Flower Queen," a Cantata, in two parts, but for the utter lack of language, either to describe properly or to express our admiration, we are forced to content ourself with a mere mention.

The name is expressive of the nature of the ceremony, but how to describe the characters, their costumes and the exquisite rendition of the several parts, we candidly confess our inability. The scene brought vividly back to memory many a long forgotten fairy tale and for the moment we almost fancied that we were sojourning in the veritable fairy land, descriptions of which "once upon a time" used to delight our childhood.

Now it seems as if we had had a beautiful dream of some gorgeous pageant which having faded away, leaves memory only the dim out lines of its beauty.

PAY DAY.—It is not often that the soldiers of the Garrison here are seen in a disorderly condition in the city; but on yesterday, one of them, having taken too much liquor, made himself particularly troublesome by attempting to enter private residences, frightening women and children, and finally pitching into "Coffee Kelly," whom he damaged considerably.—He was arrested at last by a policeman and put out of the way of mischief. We suppose that his trouble arose from the fact that "pay day" occurred this week.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?—A gentleman from the Eagle Rock section said to us, last week, "When Mr. Dick Badger comes with his friend, Jim Harris, on a speech making expedition, I shall ask him if he did not organize in Wake County, secret political societies which are now known as Ku Klux?"

If Mr. Badger did organize secret political associations in Wake, well might the Governor exclaim "O, Richard! Richard!"

We are promised something rich on this subject, which, if we find it "too good to keep," we shall not try to keep it.

GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.—See advertisement of this popular resort in to day's SENTINEL. The Lynchburg Virginian says:

"They are now open for the reception of visitors, and are prepared, under the enlarged capacities, to accommodate from fifteen hundred to two thousand guests.

The reputation of the White Sulphur is so extended that little need be said in commendation of it. As the centre of fashion it has no rival in the South; and is fast rising to the popularity of the great resorts of the North. In point of the value of its water and the beauty of its scenery it is far ahead of them, and should attract many of those who are in the habit of spending their summer vacations at Saratoga and Long Branch. They will find more real enjoyment and benefit here in Virginia than at those overcrowded places. Now that the railroad is completed to the White Sulphur and that access is so easy, we expect to see the number of its guests greatly increased and circumscribed only by the capacity to accommodate.

But the enterprise and resource of the Messrs. Peyton are equal to any emergency, and if they have't room enough for all they will make it. No Springs season in Virginia is complete without it includes a sojourn at the White Sulphur."

BURGLARY AND SOME OF ITS CONSEQUENCES.—On Monday night a burglar entered the residence of Mrs. Small, on Broad street. The rogue was a most audacious one. After visiting the bedroom of Mrs. Small and robbing that lady of a sum of money, he entered the chamber wherein Mrs. Latimer, a guest, was sleeping, and abstracted from beneath the pillow a pocket book containing more than $100. Unfortunately his boldness was rewarded with success and he escaped from the house undetected.

Circumstances induced Mr. Latimer to attach subpicion to "Prof." John Follman. Accordingly that person was arrested and carried before Justice Rixford, yesterday morning, to answer the grave charge preferred against him. Nothing was divulged at the trial to establish the prisoner's guilt, the evidence being of a very slight circumstantial nature, and he was discharged.

Mr. Latimer was evidently dissatisfied at the result of the trial, and meeting Follman a short time afterwards again charged him with having committed the burglary. An altercation ensued which was abruptly terminated by Latimer vigorously applying his cane to Follman's person; whereupon the latter incontinently fled. The castigation was short, sharp, and, doubtless, painful.—Journal of Commerce.

The Popular Tonic of the Age.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the exercise of their private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs. It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, have entitled it to universal confidence. Nothing can ever shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experiences of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well known citizens of every profession, occupation and class. There is not a city, town or settlement, in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietory restorative manufactured on this side of the Atlantic. The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters, have convinced the whole community that the only sure way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the human body on its defence when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to invigorate, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Revenue to-day $709,000.

The bill incorporating the Corcoran Art Gallery has been signed.

The report of the Committee regarding the trade between Mexico and Texas alleges that from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 have been smuggled, accuses the Mexican government with favoring illicit trade and asserts that Juarez was disloyal during the rebellion by allowing contraband goods to reach the Confederates through the territory which he controlled.

To-day's Tribune says: "Governor Bullock reads somewhat too literally. He has written us a letter, for which we now have not space, in which he urges merely technical objections to our remarks on his late communication relative to the Georgia troubles.

We are aware, though he does not seem to think it, that his term as Governor will not expire until 1872 no matter what Congress may do with the late Bingham amendment to the Georgia bill. But we also know and so does he that if that measure is adopted and a new Legislature is elected this coming Fall, Governor Bullock's official existence as we intimated, will speedily terminate, and if there is any basis of truth in the revelations of fraud and attempts at bribery contained in the report of the Investigating Committee, will Governor Bullock have just reason to complain of his fraud, or to charge us as he does in the letter we have received, that 'we don't tote fair.'"

HOUSE.—The bill to revive navigation and commerce was taken up, and after discussion it was agreed to substitute one by the Committee which was reported by the chair (Ryan).

The Northern Pacific Railroad bill was reported back without amendment. Amendments were offered to protect the rights and interests of actual settlers; and to estimate the conclusion of a guarantee of bonds of the United States. After a general discussion the main question was ordered, yeas 107, nays 66. Several amendments were voted on and rejected, but without disposing of all the amendments, the House adjourned.

SENATE.—The Conference Committee reported on the 15th amendment bill, was adopted by a party vote of yeas 48, nays 11.

The appropriation bill was resumed, and Drake's amendment regulating the rules of evidence as to the loyalty of a claimant in the Court of Claims was debated.

It prohibits the admission of a pardon or amnesty as evidence in the Court of Claims to establish the loyalty of claimants, requires the proof of loyalty specified in former acts of Congress to be adhered to irrespective of such pardon or amnesty and directs all judgments heretofore rendered in favor of claimants upon any other proof to be reversed by the Supreme Court, and pending suits based upon such pardons to be dismissed.

A telegram reciting the particulars of the murder of State Senator Stephens of North Carolina was read.

NEW YORK.

ROCHESTER, May 25.—Thirty Fenians under Capt. O'Neil, departed North; more leave to-day.

The British steamer "Hibernian" departed this morning, bearing a seizure.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The evening papers have specials to the effect that O'Neil has crossed at St. Albans, saying that he would never recross the lines unless victorious or dead. The troops moved in two columns, one upon St. John's and one in the direction of Richmond.

The utmost consternation prevails in Canada owing to the utter lack of preparations for resisting the Fenians.

SYRACUSE, May 25.—Three hundred Fenians left to-day, three hundred yesterday at midnight and two hundred in squads departed previously.

OSWEGO, May 25.—The company of Federal Artillery at Fort Ontario have been ordered to move immediately. No movements by the Fenians are reported here.

ODDENSBURG, May 25.—It is reported that the Fenians will attack Cornwall.

OTTAWA, May 25.—The United States have 150 troops on the way to obstruct the passage of 60 Fenians left behind at Prescott for want of transportation.

SWEET QUININE
Is a Recent Improvement.
Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.
Dose for dose, it is WARRANTED
Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,
AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE
Great, Positive, and Unfailing
CURE
For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.
Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,
and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE
is made solely from Peruvian Bark (as is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE
acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The great advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE
is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1869.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivaled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

SUCCESS THE CRITERION!

THE BEST MANAGED IS THE BEST COMPANY!

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

UNPREGEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. Tourgee' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.
